

I am against broadband Transmissions over Powerlines, not only for the potential effect of interference to amateur radio, but also for the potential interference to emergency communications for law enforcement and fire personnel. many Agencies rely on Radio for life and death communications and to place these in jeopardy for the convenience of a few is not acceptable.

Thank You
Eric Lundholm